South, North.

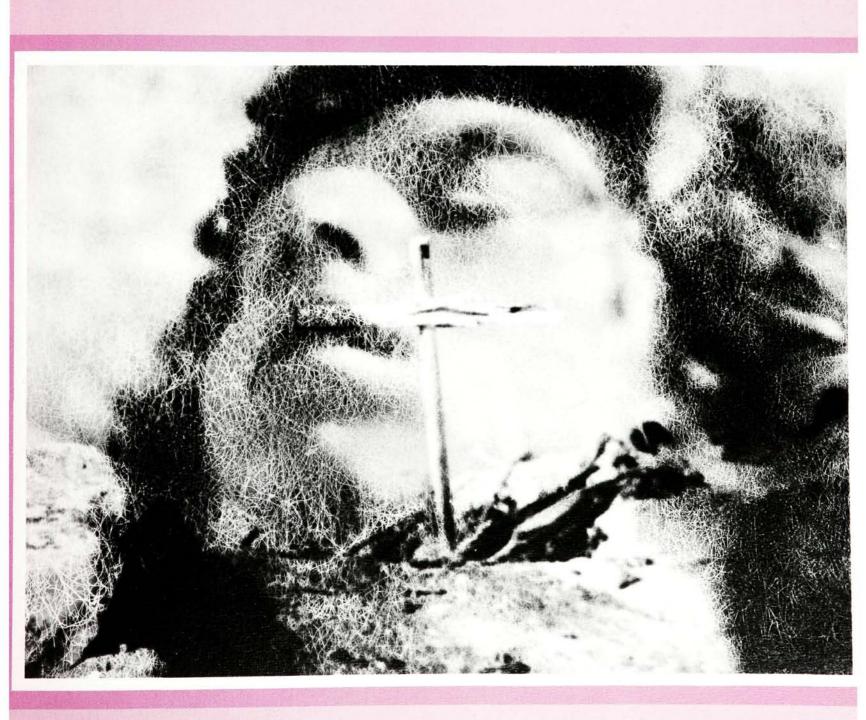

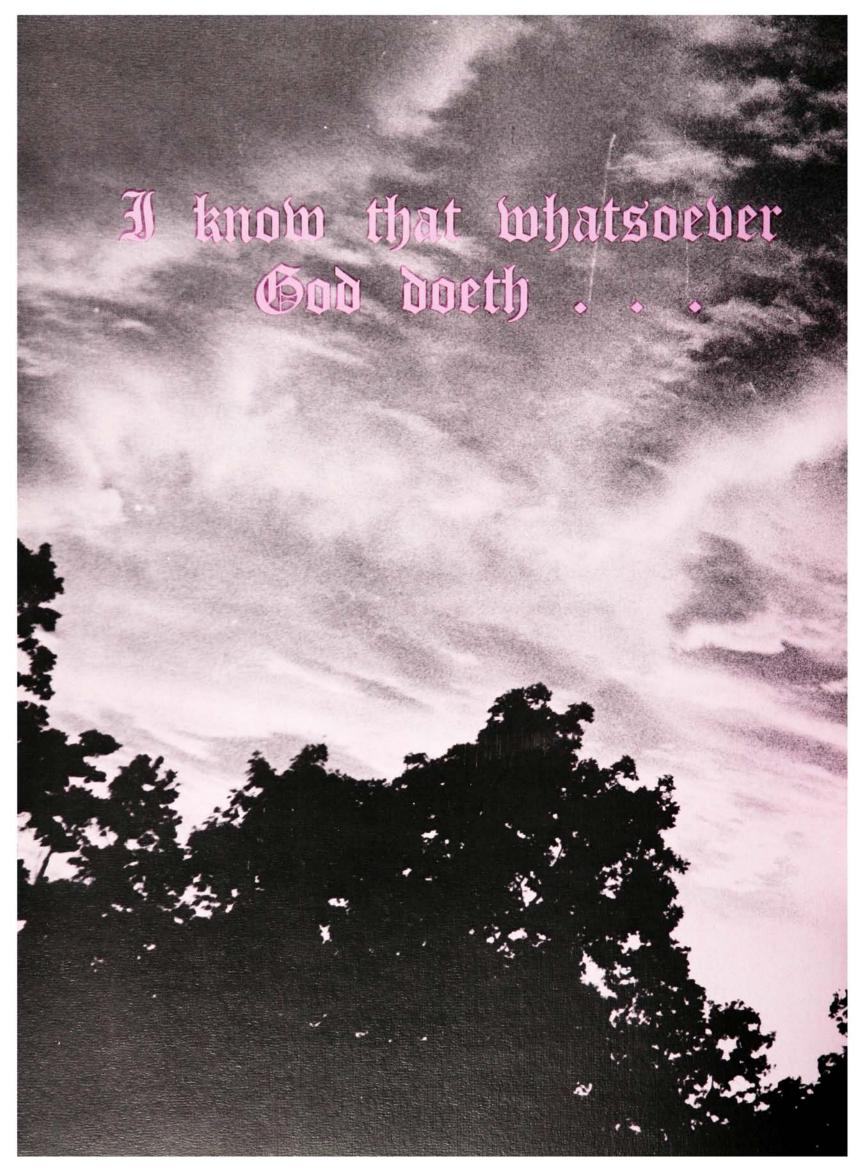

It whirleth about continually.

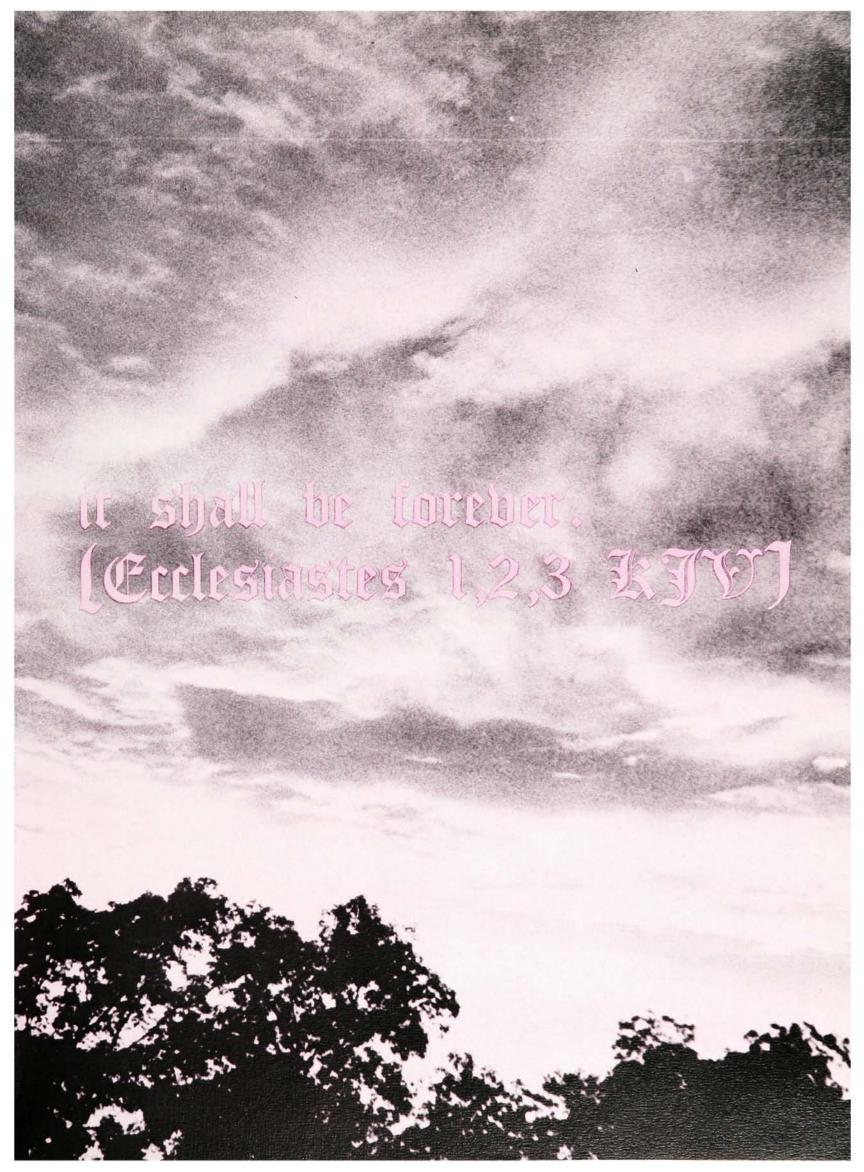

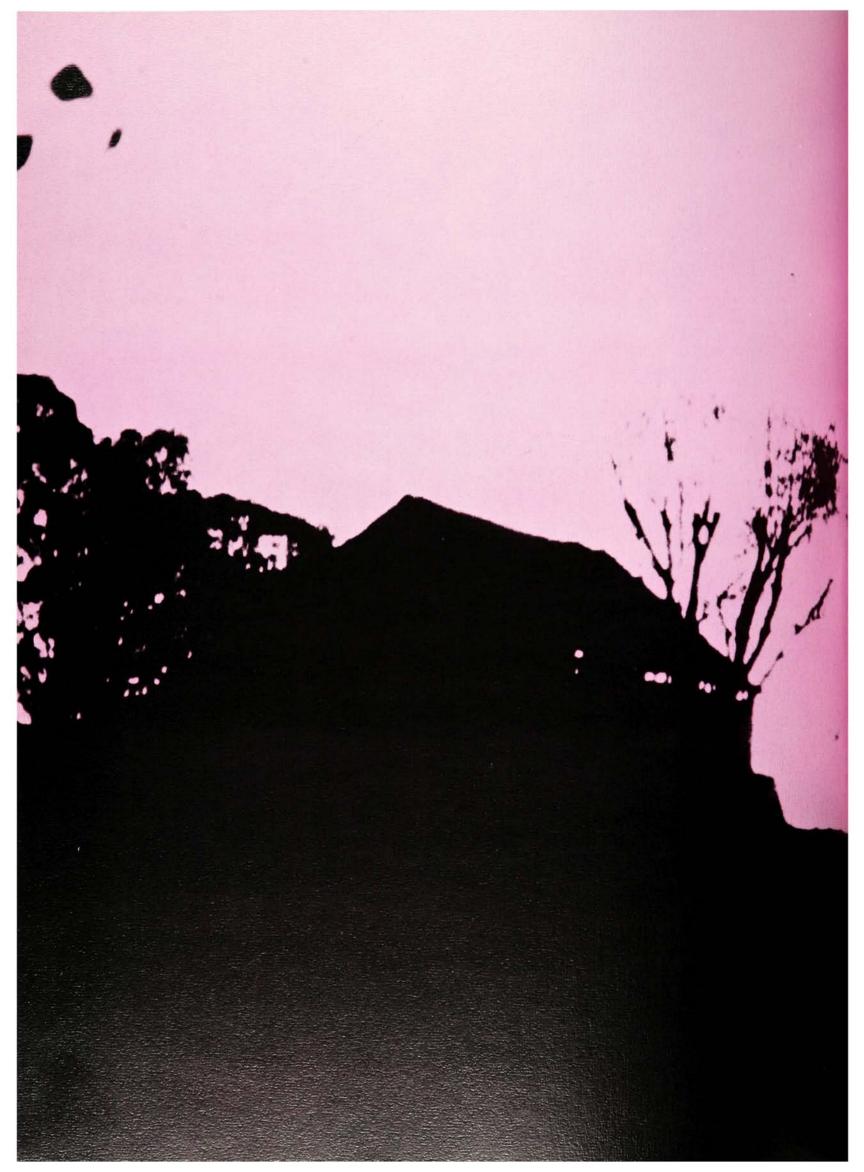

All go into one place.

All are of the dust again.

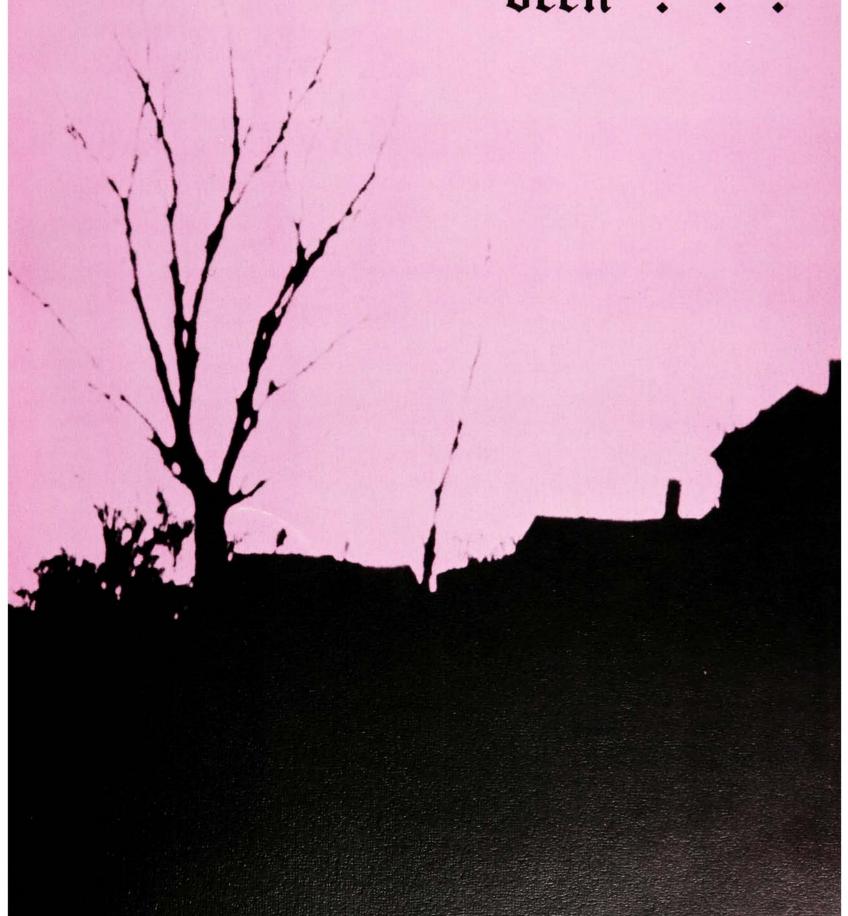

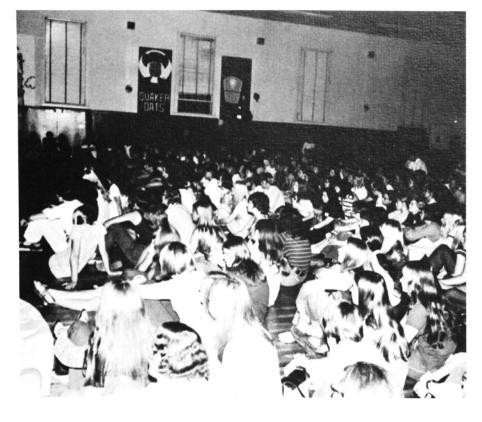

The thing that hath been . .

As the natural world surrounding the High Point College campus continues, so does the academic and social world. Fall meant a new Freshman class which, through orientation, got its first glimpse of the fun, frolic, tests, and registration lines that are so much a part of college life.

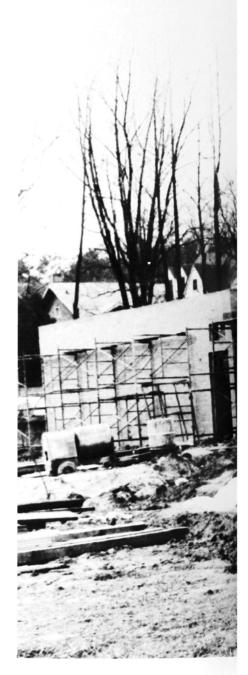

With the construction of new buildings, progress brings with it change.

FALL WEEKEND, Sha Na Na, and frequent coffee houses kept students entertained.

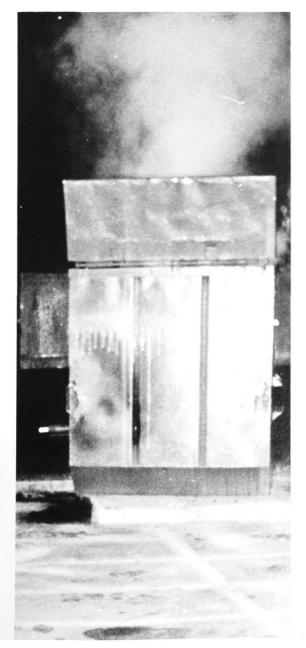

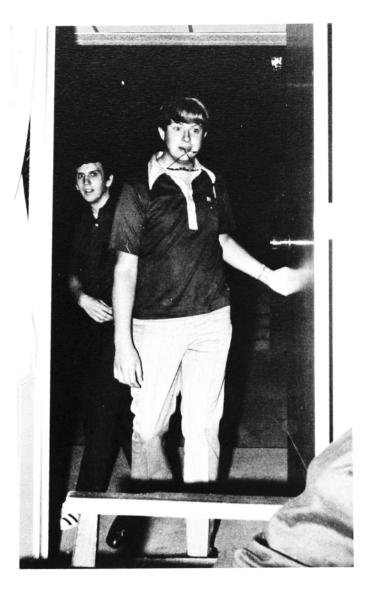

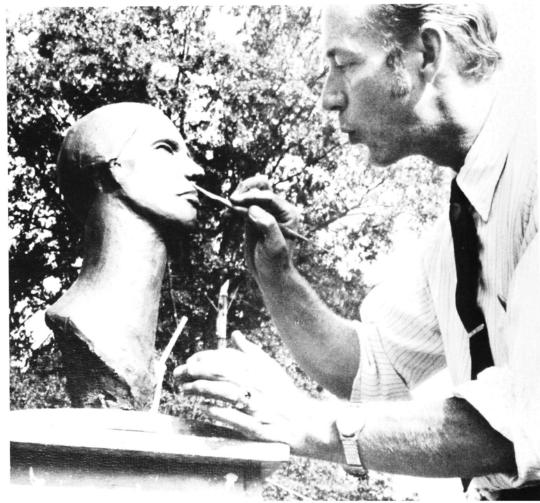

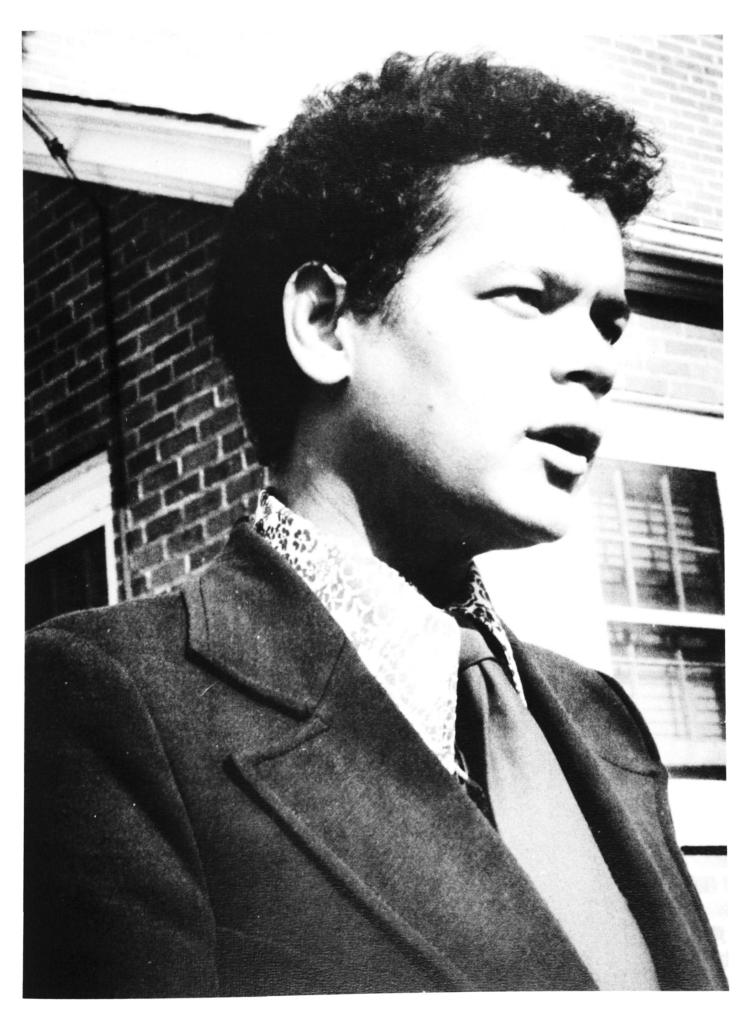

In addition to the usual parties, term papers, and art projects of fall semester, was a visit and stimulating lecture by Julian Bond.

During the month of January, our students engaged in a variety of learning experiences. Some of the business majors toured the financial districts of New York.

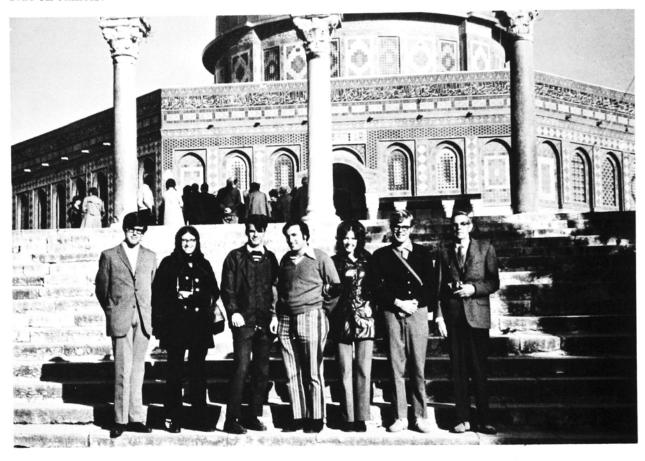

A trip overseas to England and France with Mrs. Sullivan and Dr. Kime was a thrilling experience for several students.

A trip to the Holy Land provided students with opportunities to see the Jordan River, tour temples, and ride on camels.

Other stimulating courses kept many students on campus during Interim.

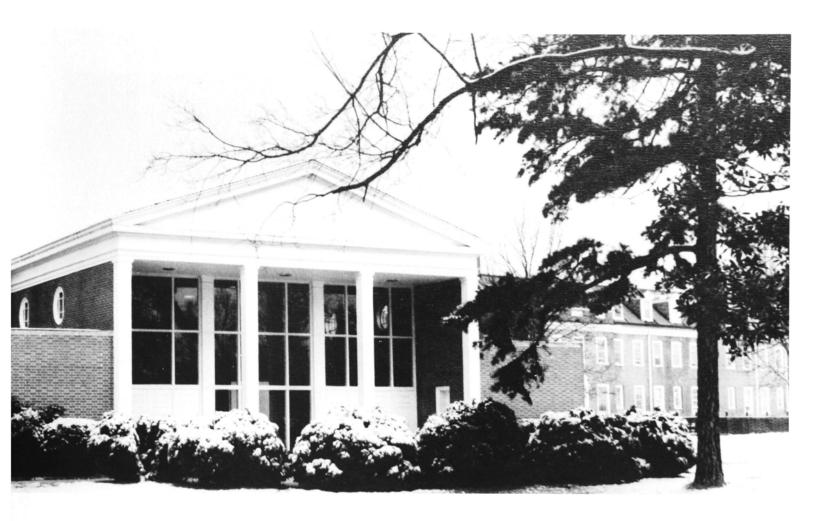

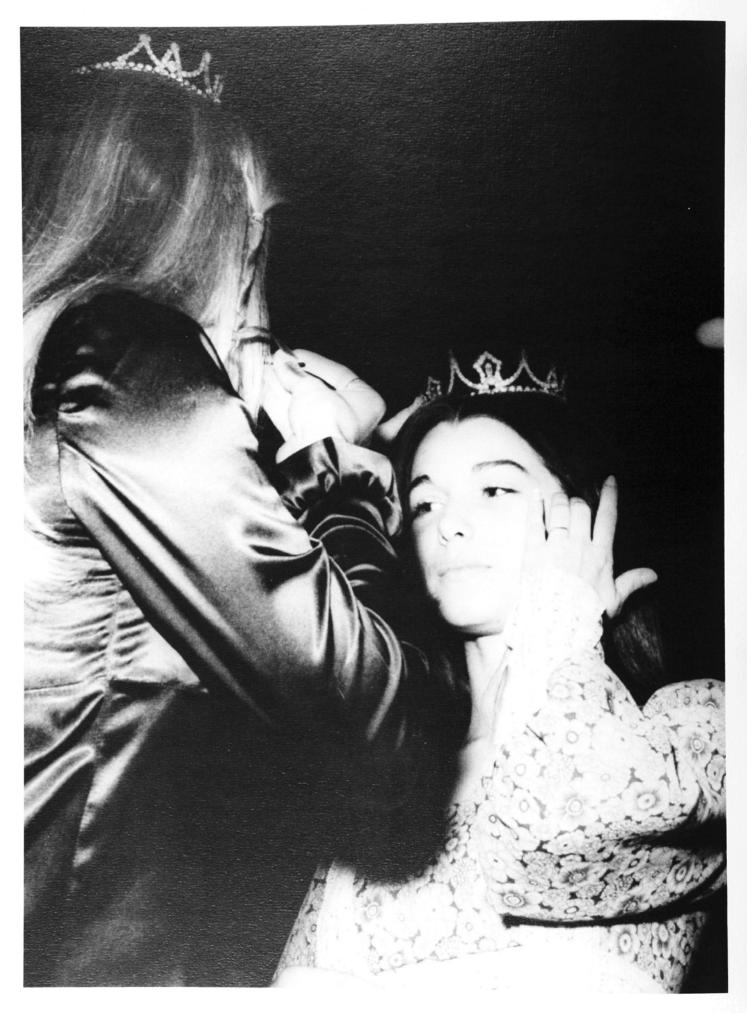

32° and snowy grounds found this year's Homecoming a chilly but happy occasion. Parents and loved ones accompanied their HPC students to concerts, movies, and the great basketball games. Student Government and supporters had prepared the campus with a "cleanup" drive and posters.

Floats are always an exciting part of each year's Homecoming Week-End. Weeks of preparation made all the work worthwhile because of group involvement, and pride when the floats were displayed.

First prize in the competition went to the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

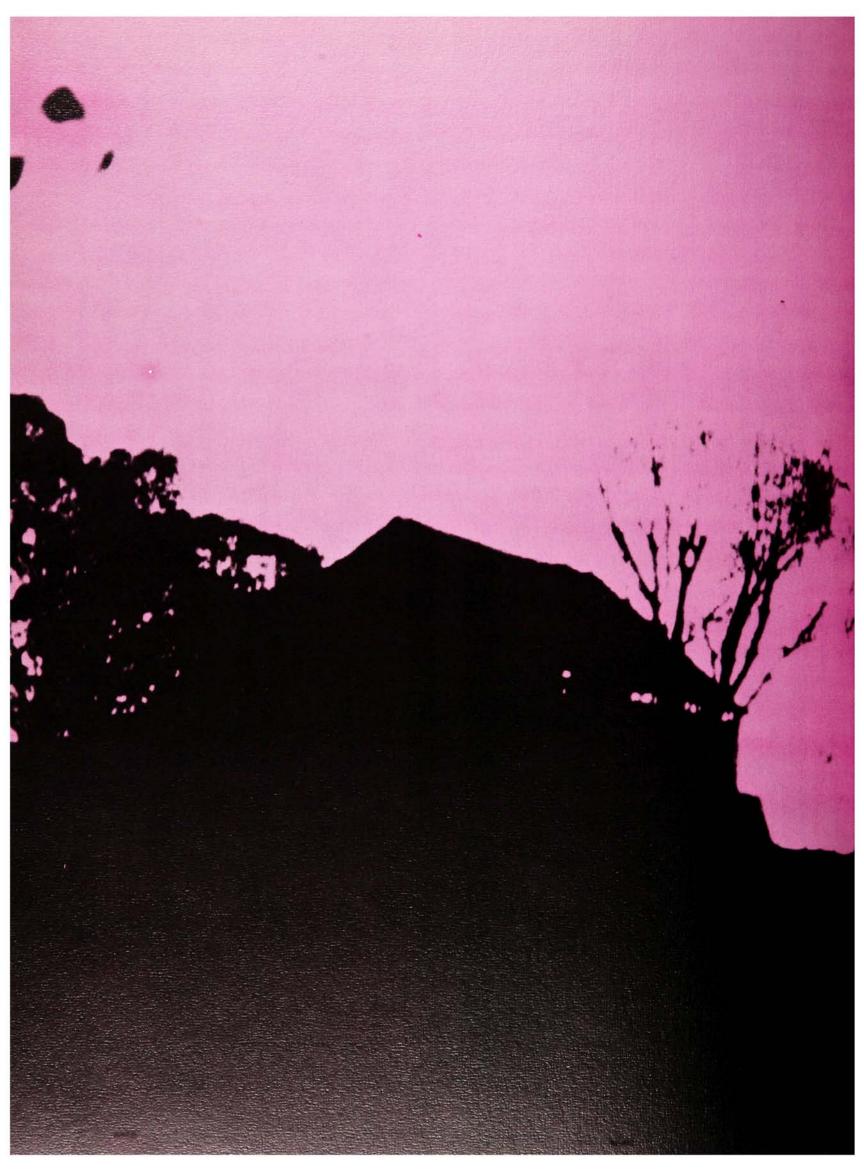

As John Young moderates the student power meeting and John Kirkman is crowned "Mr. High Point", Barb Gheen and Helen Browning prepare to go out into the world.

Entering their first year of intercollegiate competition, the members of the 1971 soccer team brought the deep interest and fiery enthusiasm left from last year's soccer club. Even though their 1-9 record does not show it, the team gave High Point something to be proud of. One has to respect the team for their 110% effort during the long practices and on the playing field.

High Point College's cross country team compiled an admirable 8-5-1 record in NAIA District 26 competition this year, which in-H.P.C.'s fourth cluded consecutive district championship. Led by team captains Lloyd Davis and Eric Noren, the Purple Panthers fought back competition from many strong schools in the area. The laurels the team brought back to High Point culminated with the selection of Coach Bob Davidson as District 26 Coach of the Year for the fourth year.

High Point's Purple Panthers lunged into the 71-72 season with a new head coach, some outstanding freshmen, the core from last year's team, and the determination, dedication, and fortitude of a winner. Despite the fact of the 13-15 season record, the team is one which HPC can be proud. Their record doesn't show the on the court performances of each and every member of the team. The total dedication and determination is what this team showed, as well as the promise of an outstanding season, and an outstanding team next year.

With lots of spirit and good capabilities the Pantherettes under Coach Betty Jo Clary opened their season ready to give all comers a fight for victory. After suffering a loss to ASU the team fought back to win the next 5 straight. They finished out the season with a fine 8-5 record, and hopes for much success at the first annual State Tournament to be held at HPC. Next years team, building on the success of the 72 squad promises to bring much glory back to HPC Pantherettes.

Co-Captains Javier Sanjines - Mike Smith

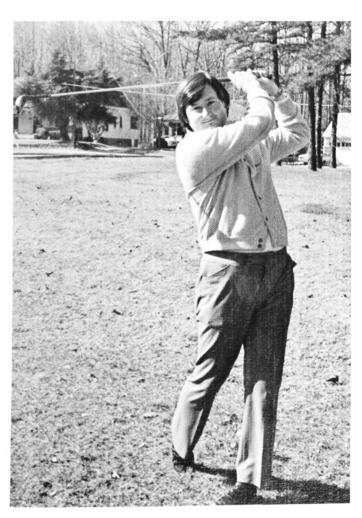

1972 brings H.P.C. a chance for an excellent tennis season. Lead by returning lettermen Javier Sanjines, and Mike Smith, who played #1 and #2 last year, the team in the words of Coach Ray Alley "We have a lot of freshmen on the team this year but probably have more tennis talent than we've had in perhaps fifteen years. With their eyes looking towards the coming season and possible tournaments berths, the team hopes any mistakes they do make will be early so they will be ready to take H.P.C. to greater heights when the tournaments arrive.

High Point's 1972 Golf Team began practice with the hope of another fine season. Coached by Mr. Robinson and staffed by three returning lettermen, one of which is last years number one man, Bob Smith. With the help of the new members of the team it is hoped we will be able to put together a winning season.

H.P.C.'s Baseball team opened another season with the possibility of continuing their command of the conference, and with all the requirements to do that and more. If more strength can be added to the bullpen, most see no reason why the Panthers will not add even more victories and awards to those which have already made High Point the baseball power in the area.

Delta Zeta of Delta Sigma Phi

The Delta Zeta Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity in continuance of its involvement in leadership, athletics, and campus affairs still finds time to have a BALL!

Ting—What happened to the Kansas City Chiefs?
... Beck—had a barrel of fun on I-85... Pooh—
Where do you live—403?... Hail Caesar O'Barrows!... Al—"What the ——"??... Lyle—King of the Jocks... Oliver—McDaniel Colts maybe?...
Rocky—"how I financed my Senior Year"... Jan—
How are the BIRDS?... Earl—"give me a Villa Special to go"... Bogdon—nature boy... Joe College—Do they have nice laundromats in Charlotte?
... Grey—"drive me to class".

Some of the Brothers will long remember 1971-72. Harvey, Stein, Nate, and Crash—halfway down the aisle! Summers, Evans, Hufschmidt—"just walked in the door".

The number of pledges seem to swell ensuring successful and prosperious years ahead for the "Bond of Sphinx". The pressure is great, we're working up steam for the biggest ball of them all—SAILORS!

Gamma Zeta of Phi Mu

Looking back, this surely has been a fantastic, funfilled, PHI MU filled year for all of us. Many exciting things have happened in the lives of our sisters. For a few examples, Charlene and Cyndy both gave Carolina hubbies; Ginny has graduated and now finds herself up in the third grade, leaving Ovie to make those long trips down the hall alone. Their "strange" rumors have been transferred to Hampton and her new roomie, Baby. Earle is moaning over her bar-rackridden honey while trying to advise Dawn on how to train Woobers. Each week we find ourselves asking Shipe "Who will it be this weekend, no. 1, 2, or 3?" Jeri and Vicki seem to have spent a great deal of time at the auto repair shop this year - and, Marcia, what's wrong with the "Blue Baby" THIS week? While Bev is looking around for a T.M.O.C., Rosie and Gilbert seem to have "Diamond-envy" of their roommates, Phyllis and Bush, the mail-order fiancee. Judy is it true blondes have more fun, or wouldn't you rather be black? Guess Brugger will stay a blonde for a while. Wish Blaine and Barb could have been on the Hall this year. Peggy, are Jeff's rashes caused by an allergy to you? . . . And Anne, are you an Army or a Navy fan? Rumor has it that J.D. thinks Janis is "loads" of fun. What would we do without Robin who keeps us "rocking" with all her traumatic experiences? In fact, what would we all do without each other to share our experiences?!

Tradition, hard knocks, loyalty, and the fall from the unbeaten list in Epsilon Alpha of Theta Chi. The ability of the brotherhood to "extend a helping hand" to friends, school and community will not be lessened by the graduation of old-time brothers or by the initiation of new pledges.

Parties at Chip's, bust by Big Murph, New Year's with Nick, John, Teo, and Apple, 12 on a colt at Mardi Gras... Theta Chi outdoes itself again at Homecoming... Kadie out of control 83% of the time. Big B—social affiliate of the year—Golden Glove Award to "Hot Nuts" Dal. Which weekend is she coming, Boo? Only one pick, Lagos.

In a final salute, we'd like to give those graduating Brothers our parting and time-tested word of the future: Calvin — better keep your bacon in a better hiding place. Eisele — buy stock in Bambu, tops, zig-zag, buc-lar, marfil, OOB, etc. Warren — Randy "Oscar Mayer" Robertson. Kadie — from Annapolis to High Point in six years. Furman — may the best man win. Deao — half a pint every night. Kayfman maybe a redhead next time. Baird — is pumpkin your favorite pie? Gregory — Spud for the defense? 400. Butler — buy stock in the Cove and Lipton (tea bags). Kirkman — John Who? Found his pin?

New friendships, challenging goals, and love in AOT started off this year for the KD's.

Who, what, when, where Amy? Is Linda still barking? . . . and Cochran what's this we hear about Dennis being hot on the trail . . . er! Scooter is that sparkle in your eye from the rock on your hand? Chuck, I think that pin has grown to your body! Did you really see Big Ben Marty? Sarah, are all those Mexicans as nice as Pancho? Hey Dyer — decisions, decisions, decisions!! Are the cokes at the Cove as watered down as the beer, Harrington? Hey Stutts — how's married life treating you? Missie give your mouth a rest! Do I smell fish Powell? Okay Slaughter, haircut time! FLASH . . . Spiker returns from Nam and relieves Shaw of Aggrevation and Wilhelm says "high"!

Iota Phi of Lambda Chi Alpha

1971-1972 has been a difficult year for Lambda Chi Alpha. Because of rushing violations, we were not allowed to pledge men until January which caused us to have our seven "friends". This year our old system of pledging was abolished. Lambda Chi has started an associate member program which we feel gives the associate member a more realistic picture of the fraternity and helps us live up to our open motto "Every Man A Man".

Resseguie, when'd you get back? Drake, that's a healthy woman. Irv Lambda Chi bartender. Boyer's O.T.R. Delta Gamma of Zeta Tau Alpha

As another year draws to a close, we will always remember the great "parties" and "frolics" we've shared as members of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Rush school started off with a big "bang" when Grandmother hit the floor with Aunt Joyce's bed in a shambles around her. Luckily, our star performers survived a dunking in the depths and we were all ready to rock out 'til dawn — as usual!! (Go Little Lib!)

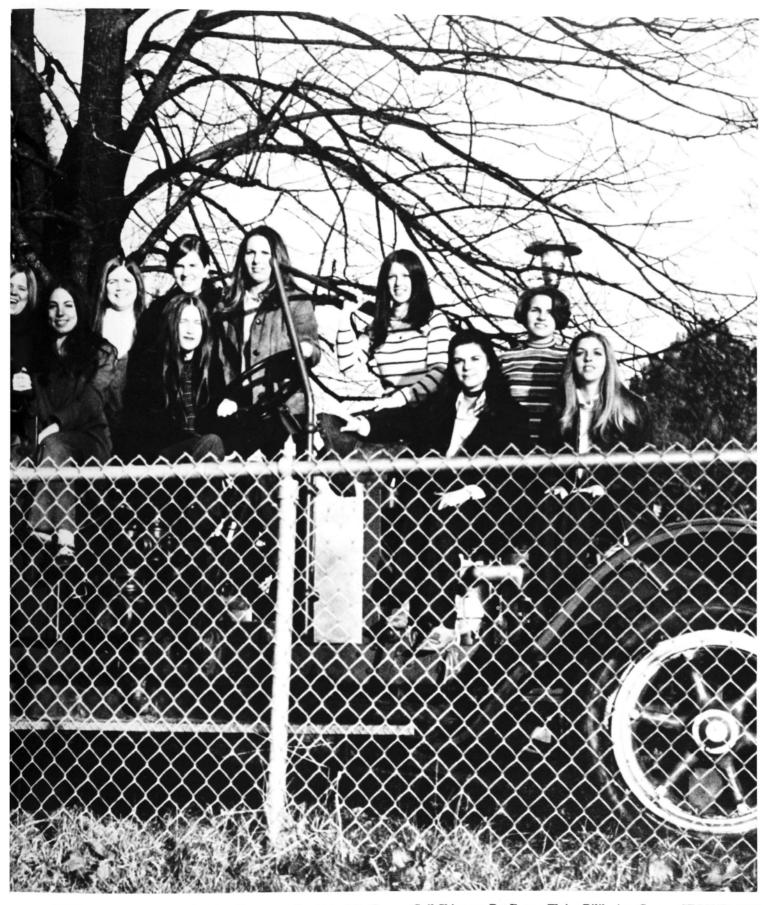

Who could keep straight as this year proved no exception and provided many titles for our beloved sisters? Little Lib, Snoopy, Chuck, Hosek, Greenie, Munchkin, T.B., Chicken and Numie — a few of the tamer ones.

In spite of Old Man Winter's efforts, the pledge dance survived — as we all skidded and slid through the snow for one of the best times ever! The Holiday Inn will probably never recover!

The looth Link Ball, State Day, and National Convention bring recognition for Delta Gamma's fantastic bunch with awards in scholarship, campus involvement, spirit, Zeta Pride, and— above all—Sisterhood.

Still tops when in and out windows, having car troubles, perching chickens on shoulders, rallying at O.D., Zeta Tau Alpha knows her seniors will "Remember" and looks forward to "Today" and another fabulous year with a sisterhood that lasts forever!

Mu Xi of Alpha Phi Omega

Following the tradition of the world's largest Greek Organization; the brothers of Mu Xi chapter of Alpha Phi Omega actively pursue the principles of the fraternity. This is done through leadership . . . taking active roles in campus and community organizations; friendship . . . helping with freshman orientation, hosting prospective students, taking "little" brothers from the community; and service . . . by helping the campus, community, and nation, through such activities as, aiding in national charity drives, sponsoring community litter drives, sponsoring the blood mobile, planning Boy Scout camporees, planting daffodils, and taking I.D.'s.

But, service isn't all that makes an A.P.O. It takes a little bit of hell raising to make a good brother. Hey Napoleon . . . "Cram it little man." "Hard-On" . . . Right Brillo? Butch Cassidy and the Sundance turn in their guns. LaMar . . . Where do you go every Wednesday night? The Pollack's answer to the Bobbsy Twins takes over the throne. Hey Hasty . . . How's Target? Hey Chuck . . . When are you going to finish that closet. Dave . . . The Preacherman. The Phili kid . . . keeps on a truckin. Margaret . . . Do you think it will work? Cry Baby . . . Is that V.W.? Hey Green . . . J. C. was a carpenter and so are you. Firewaters is bad for Injuns, ain't it, Smokey? Genius . . . Where the litnus paper? We finally finished the lounge!

Alpha Delta Theta

Reflections of 1972 for Alpha Delta Theta find an enthusiastic, dedicated force striving to fulfill their goal as "sisters in the service of God."

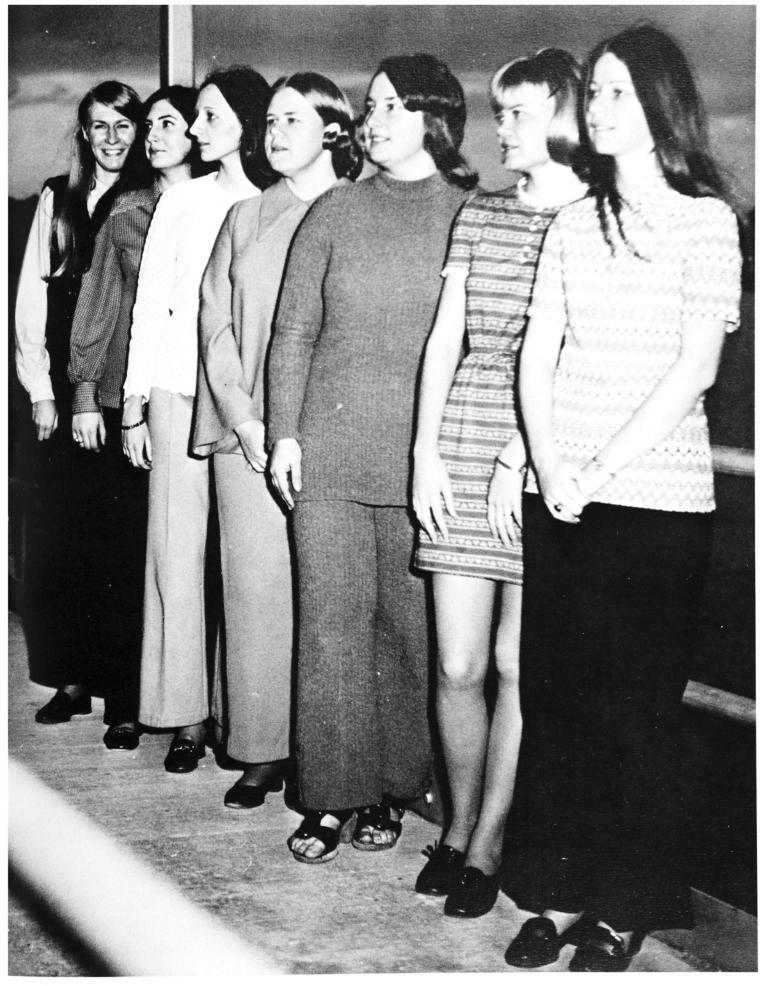

This year service projects have included giving vespers, supporting an orphan in Korea, as well as doing service projects out at the Presbyterian Home.

Fun and friendship have characterized the year starting with two new pledges and continuing through the Retreats. Fall and spring retreats were an inspiration in themselves. Big sisters, Heart sisters, and Banquets were special treats, while parties and peak-of-excitement candlelights have made each day unique.

Yes, this is the mirror of Alpha Delta Theta . . . one that is made strong by its bond as "sisters in the service of God."

One generations goth away

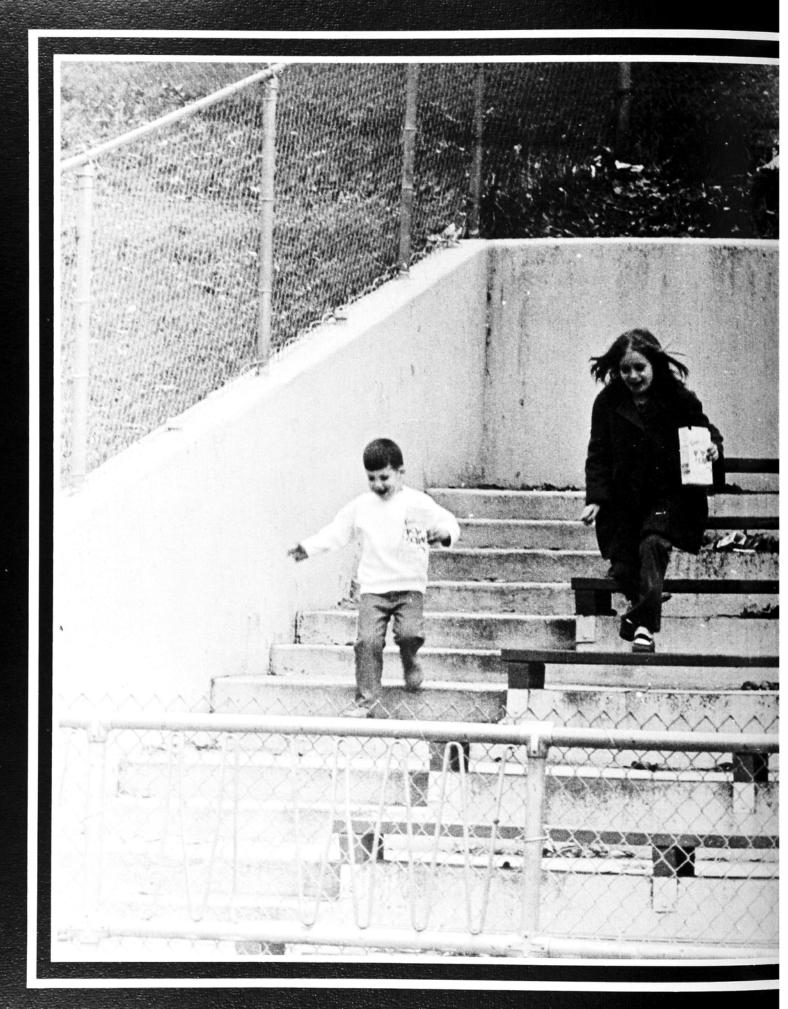

and generations comel cometh

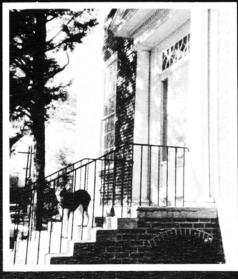

but it makes no

earth

difference

torever.

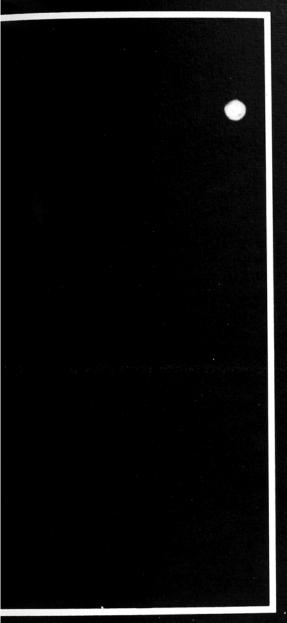

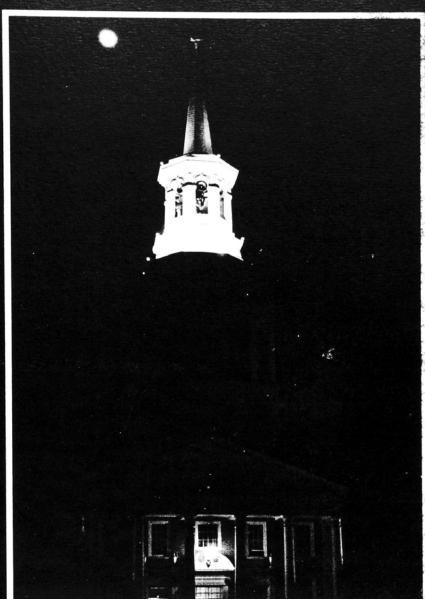

The sun rises and sets

All State of the sun rises around the sun rises are sun rises around the sun rises are sun

The wind blows south and north, mirneth about

here and there, twisting back and forth,

ill mhuleth

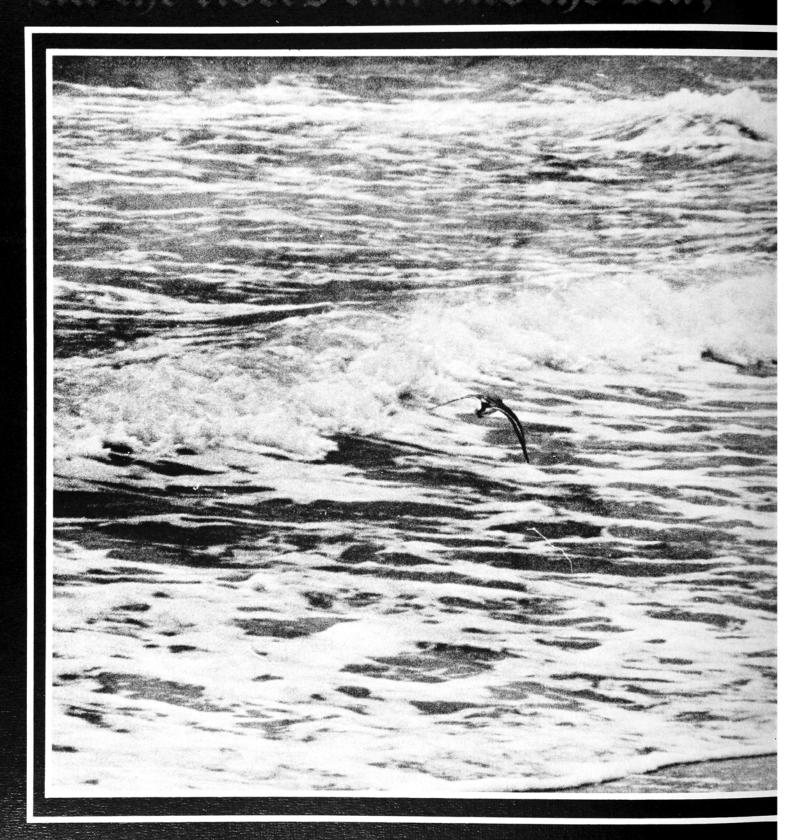

getting nowhere.

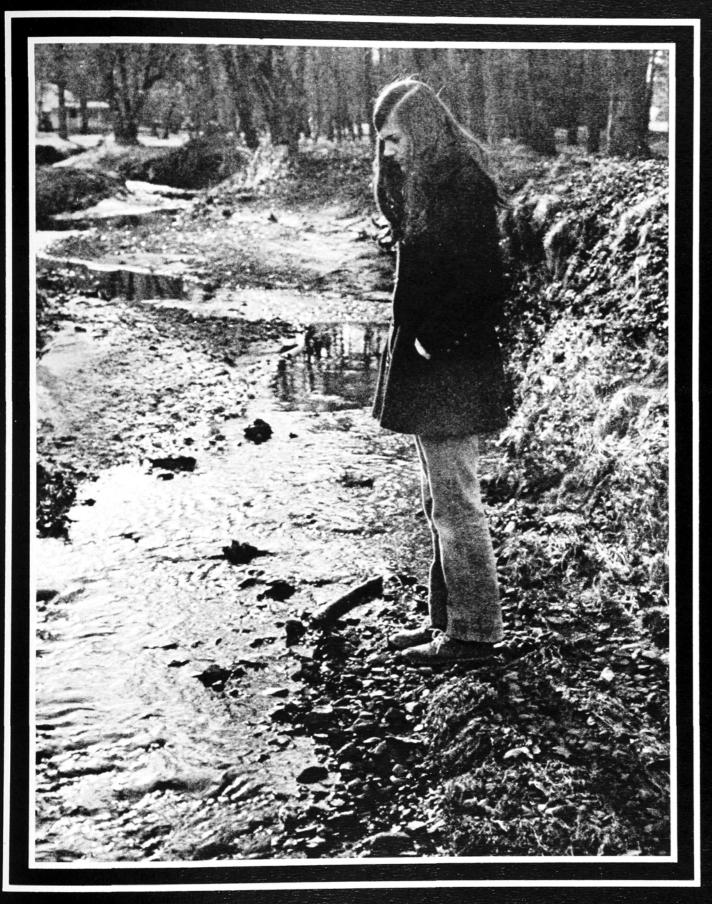

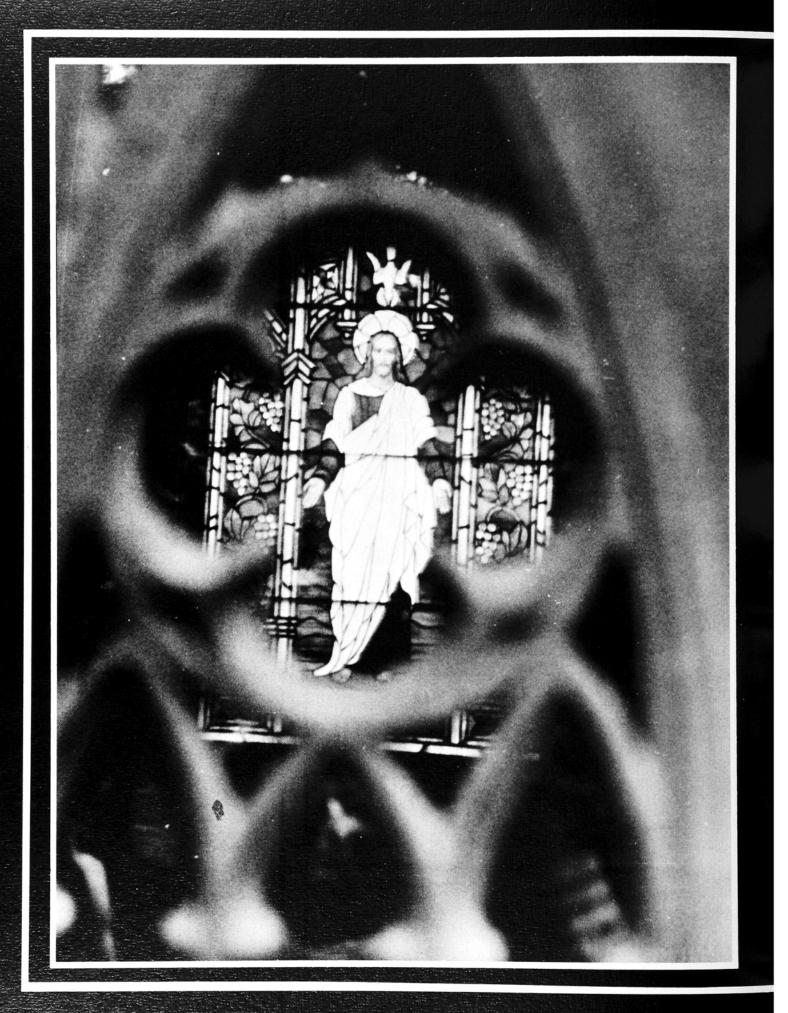

The rivers run into the sea, but the sea is never full, and the Twater returns again to the revers, and flows again to the seall.

All go to one place —
the dust from which they came and to which they must return.

And I know this,

that whatever God does

is final.

. It shall be forever.

(Living Bible Ecceles 1, 2, 3)

 $\hbox{``I can't believe we finished the WHOLE thing!'' Yes, Ralph-the WHOLE thing!''}\$

First of all, now that I have been given the opportunity, I would like to thank everyone responsible for making this book a reality — especially my great staff, whose hard work and gay laughter would keep anyone's spirits uplifted, but most of all; I thank the One who was always there giving me the strength to go on.

Secondly, this hope I leave with you: Just as this book became a physical reality, may every page of it open to you a new awareness of your own spiritual reality. Finally, may His peace saturate every fiber of your being until you overflow in the infinite reality of His perfect love.

Thank you!
